Dear Larry:

I have examined the six $20 Confederate notes which you received on approval and wish to advise you that all of them are counterfeits, having been described by Chase as No. C-1-132.

These are ordinarily not sold but their value would be about $1.00 each if the owner wishes to let you have one or more on that basis.

The genuine note of which these are copies is, naturally, a rare and beautiful engraved item.

Sincerely yours,

Eric P. Newman, President

Dear Larry,

It was very unnecessary and thoughtful to send both a Christmas card and a necktie to me.

Thank you for your kindness.

I hope we share many numismatic pleasures together in the New Year.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Larry,

I had hoped to have an opportunity to read about Trujillo before I thanked you for thinking of me this Christmas but time is running out and I must thank you first.

I assure you I will read the book with much interest.

Sincerely,

Dear Larry,

The New Netherlands Coin Company has sent me a copy of a South Carolina book on paper money which I recentlyloaned you. Their price is $22.50. As you will recall, it has a fine index, loads of illustrations of bank notes, and, if you want it, please advise me.

I recommend it to you. It is in perfect condition.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Larry,

Enclosed is the Ocoee $10 note which you will see is pasted together from a couple of other notes.

Your source probably has additional notes and I think it would be worth while to try to obtain one.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Larry:

This will confirm the arrangement as to your purchase of a complete run of the Numismatist Magazine from 1911 through 1939 (29 volumes) @ $10 per volume or a total of $290. I believe this will be a major library acquisition for you. I will advance the money on your behalf and you can repay me from time to time as your numismatic expenditure budget permits . I presume you can readily take care of it during the next 12 months.

All except a couple of volumes are unbound and in original jackets.

Please advise your family of this matter as it is a substantial amount of money even if it is for a very important period of numismatic information.

I will bring it over by car when you are ready to receive it.

Many happy reading hours.

Fellow Numismatist;

As a preferred customer of mine during the last few years, I feel that I should apprise you of my current status. I'm now heading a paper money department for Edgewood Coin Co., Jacksonville, Fla., which is owned by Emory Robinson.

I'll be buying, selling and trading all types of paper money, especially U.S. obsolete notes, Confederate notes, old checks, and stocks and bonds...on the wholesale and retail levels.

Please let me know if I can help you with a rare note for your collection, or a dealer lot for your retail customers; I'll provide you with quality and/or quantity notes at a competitive price!

Drop me a line, or give me a call, indicating how I can help you in your collecting or merchandising needs.

Hoping to do business with you again, I remain,

Sincerely yours,

Larry Marsh

SUBJECT

Dear Eric:

[redacted]

I believe by this time Ron Horstman has delivered to you the award I accepted in your behalf from the West Chester County Currency Club at the Memphis Paper Money Show. If there are any additional details which I can give you concerning this award, please do not hesitate to contact me.

[redacted]

Please find enclosed a xerox copy of a note I recently obtained for my own personal collection. This previously unknown Alabama note is apparently one of two that has recently surfaced, the other one being a $1.00 note which is now in the personal collection of Paul Garland. Needless to say, Paul did his best to obtain this one from me, but unsuccessfully.

I look forward to seeing you at the ANA in Cincinnati.

Sincerely,

Larry Marsh

Dear Larry—

Thank you for the bonds. Those really appeal to my wife.

I have offered your #20 of Farmers Bank of Mo at your price to several people. Karl Zuehlke showed buy it but I think he is prejudiced against counterfeits. Thus he will not have any of this denomination.

I offered the "loan calls" to a couple in Philadelphia — they showed no interest in them.

Thus I am only buying what I need:

#1 Merchants Bank (large tear)	25.00 Stl show
Strand Loan Due to Bank of N.A.	20.00 stl show
Four bonds of Terminal RR of certif of Merchants Bridge	120.00

Balance are returned.
Apparently most of the St Louis collectors + dealers had seen your material before I did.
I hope I can do better next time.

Good luck.

See you next time and I hope I get there first.

Dear Esteemed Customer:

I have appreciated your business in the paper field of numismatics over the past several years. Since I value your business greatly, I felt that I would inform you of my present status in numismatics.

On February 19, 1990, I joined the firm of Lucien Birkler and Company of Washington, which is a firm which will allow me to serve your paper numismatic needs even better than I have in the past. I will have more freedom and capital to work with than I did with my previous employer. A new price list of paper money will be out within the month and offer you hundreds of items to choose from.

Meanwhile, if I can be of any help to you with either a want list or a selection on approval, please do not hesitate to let me know.
